introduction

A traditional Chinese landscape painting in the style of a misty mountain scene. It features jagged, misty mountains, gnarled pine trees, and a few birds flying in the sky. The overall tone is soft and atmospheric, with a light beige background.

Purpose and background

Improving English proficiency:

The primary purpose of international school English planning programs is to help students improve their English proficiency, enabling them to communicate fluently and accurately in English in an international environment.

Adapting to the trend of internationalization: With the acceleration of globalization, English has become the international lingua franca.

Developing an English language planning plan can help schools adapt to the trend of internationalization and improve their level of educational internationalization.

Promoting cross-cultural communication: Through English learning, students can better understand different cultural backgrounds, enhance their cross-cultural communication skills, and lay a foundation for future international exchanges.

Reporting scope

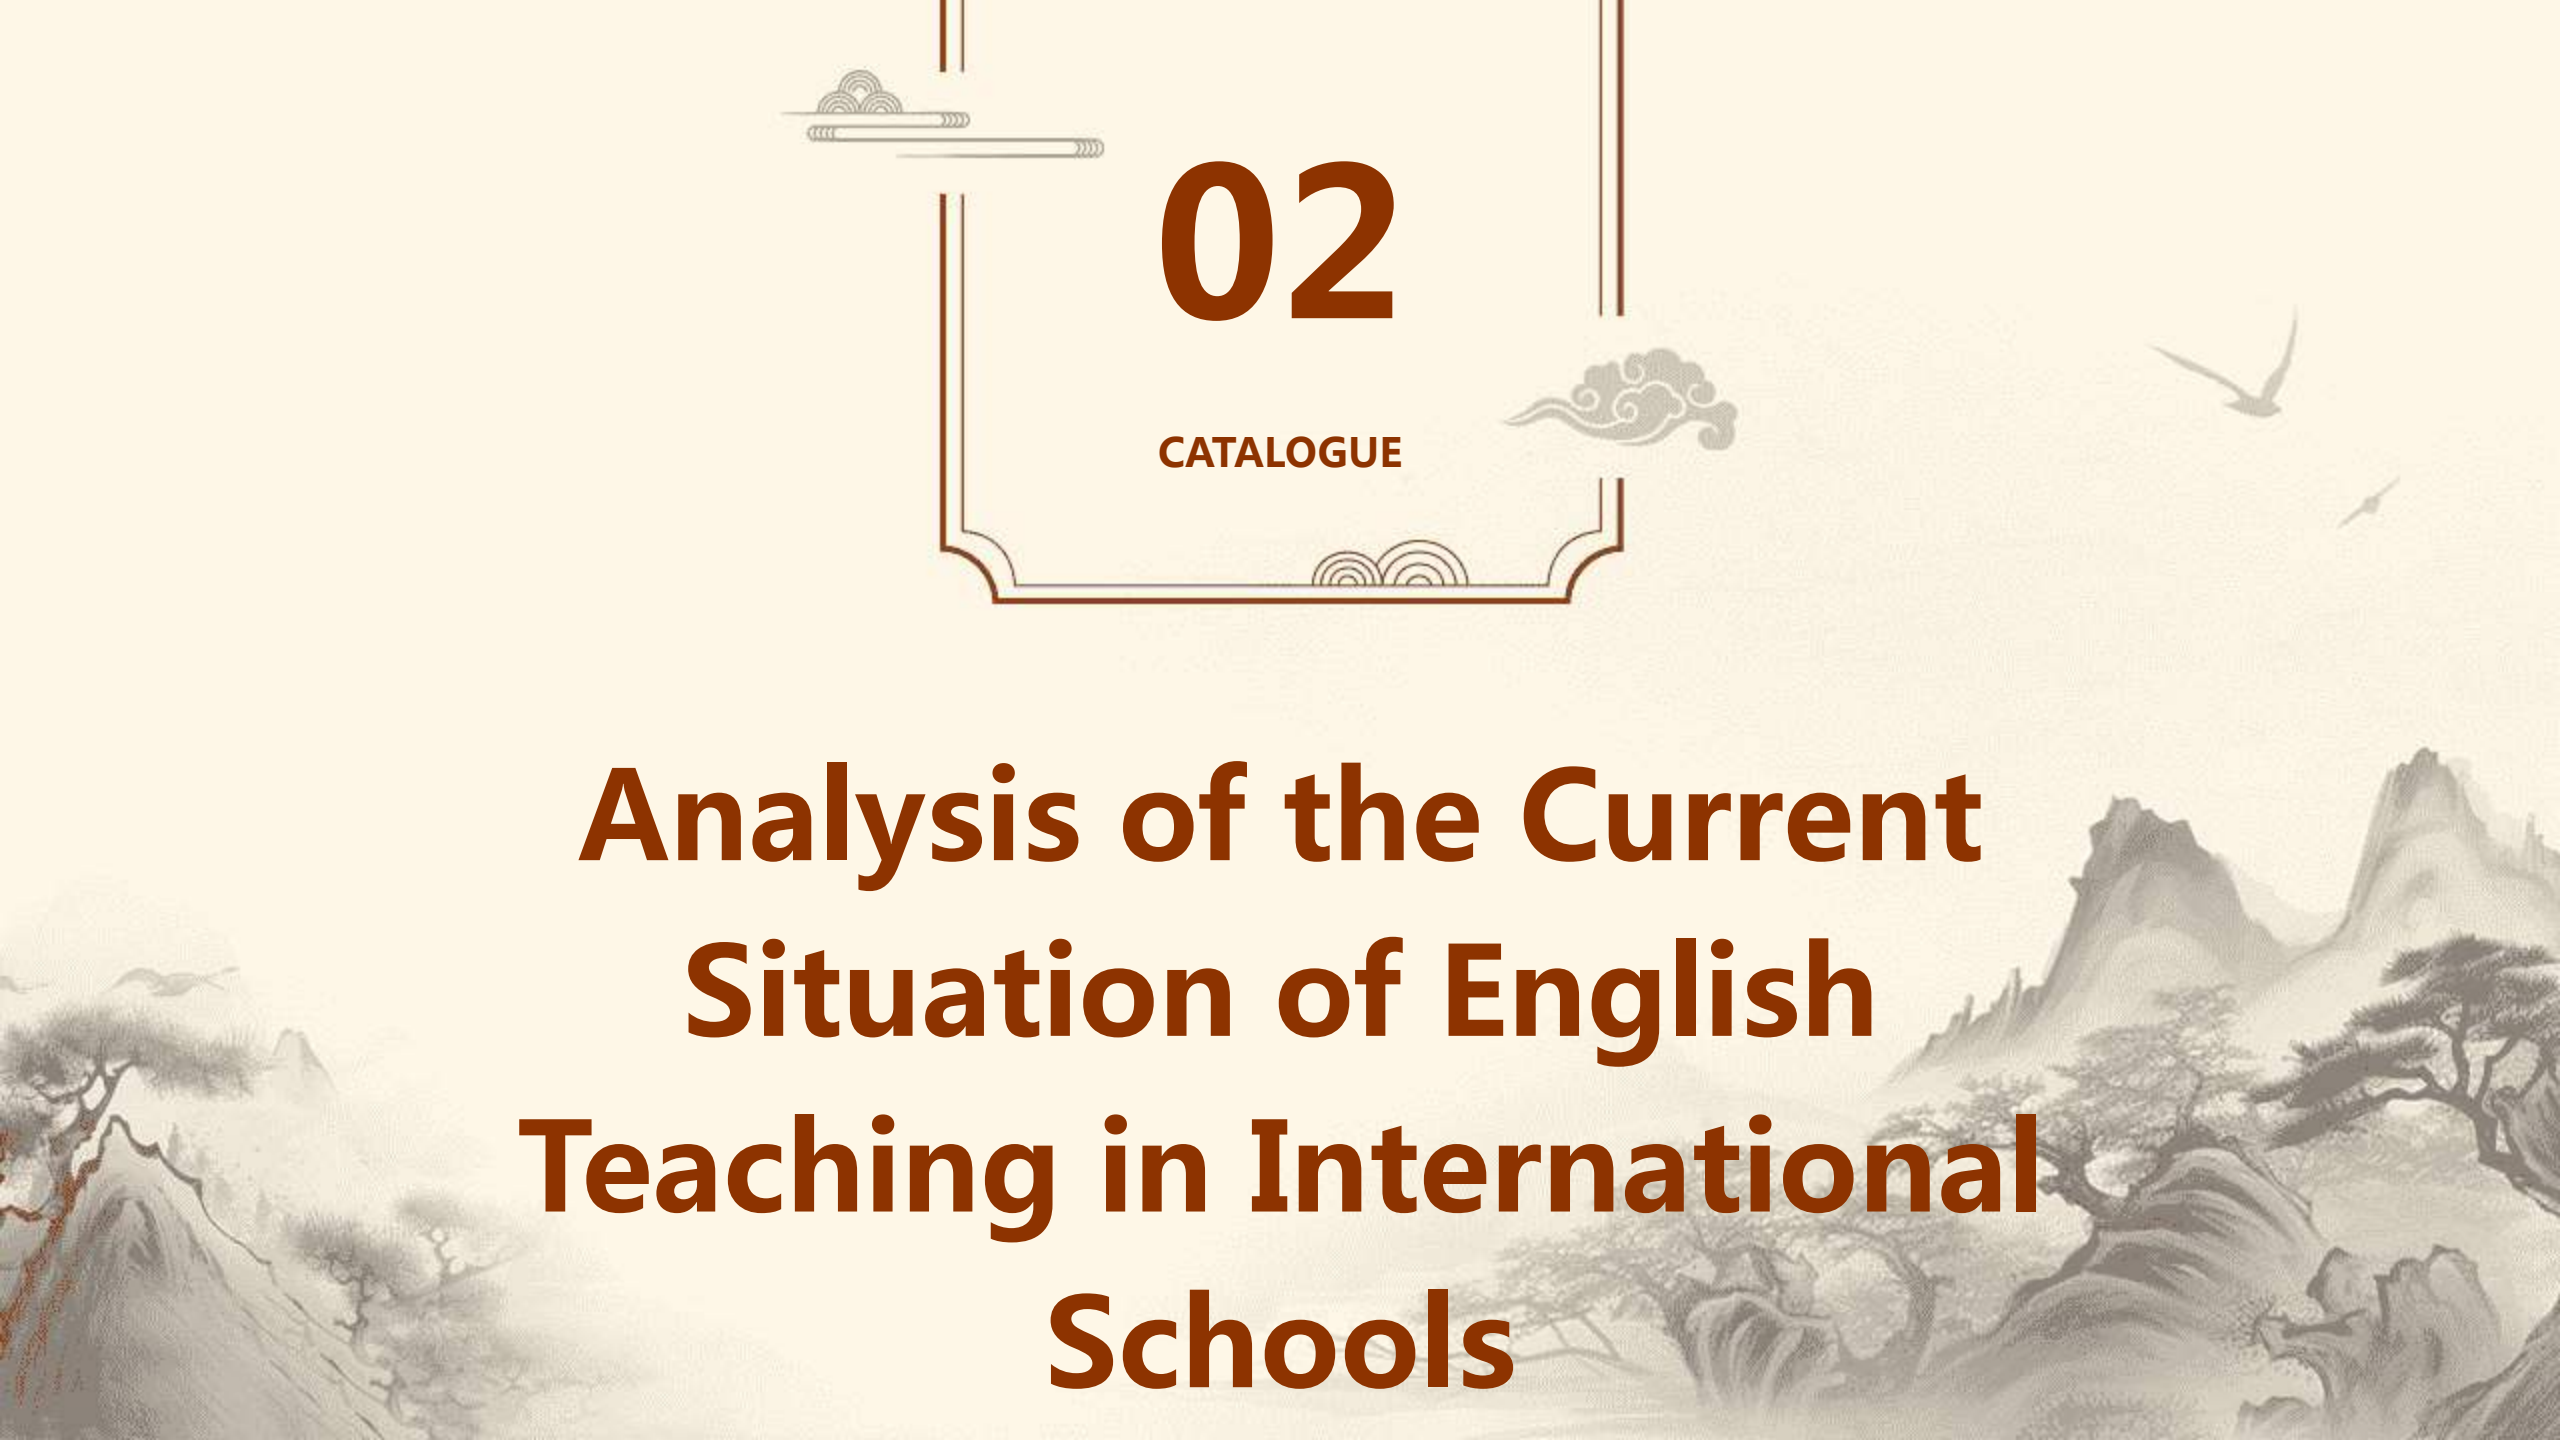

- Analysis of the current situation of English teaching: Conduct a comprehensive review of the current English teaching situation in the school, including curriculum design, teaching staff, teaching resources, and other aspects.
- English teaching goal setting: Based on the school's positioning and student needs, set clear English teaching goals, including specific requirements for listening, speaking, reading, writing, and other aspects.
- Improvement measures for English teaching: Based on the problems identified in the current situation analysis, specific improvement measures are proposed, such as optimizing curriculum design, strengthening teacher training, and enriching teaching resources.
- English teaching achievement evaluation: Develop scientific evaluation standards and methods, conduct regular evaluations of English teaching achievements, timely identify problems, and adjust teaching plans.
