Apps can help with our life. They make our lives easier and more fun. Let's see some great apps for holidays.

Soosee Do you have a food allergy (过敏) or are you on a special diet? The app Soosee could help scan the ingredient labels (成分表) of products and quickly tell you if it has any of the things you want to avoid. It's also called a "food scanner". Soosee works in nearly 20 languages. It can also translate information if you travel overseas or buy a product from another country.

Strava Strava is used by millions of people to record exercise activities. People mainly use it to record running or bike riding, but it can also record other activities too. If people go for jogging, they can see their running paces and the routes (路线) they take. Here is also an "activity feed" which you can check your friends' activities.

Headspace If you need someone or something for support, the app Headspace might help you deal with stress, sleep better and stay focused. It has four main sections. In the Meditation section, you can focus on different feelings or topics. In sleep, stories and exercises help you relax before bed. In Move, there are some workouts guided. Finally, Focus help you focus on the task by music.

Online shopping at bazaar.net

Reem

Have you ever used Bazaar? No! Well, I think Bazaar is the best website on the Internet. It's easy to use and it's fast I buy everything here. There are a lot of cool phones, computers and video games. There are lots of great photos too, so you can see what you're buying. First, you choose what you want, and then you go to the checkout (结算) and pay with your credit card (信用卡). It is simple. If there's a problem, you can contact the workers by phone, email or social media. But I have never had any problems!

Online shopping at deeziner.com

Samir

I have used this website lots of times and I think it's very good. It's a really cool website for designer clothes. I have bought a lot of clothes and shoes here and it's great for buying presents. I've bought a watch for my dad and a pair of sunglasses for my mum here too. The website is easy to use, but sometimes it can be really slow. Your shopping bag adds up the prices.

When you get to the checkout, it's easy to pay. I always use this website to buy things.

- A. Convenient but slow. B. Boring and hard to use.
C. Fast and easy to use. D. Cool but not convenient.

27. What things has Samir bought at deeziner.com?

- ①clothes ②shoes ③ computers ④a watch ⑤a pair of sunglasses
A. ①②③④ B. ①③④⑤ C. ①②③⑤ D. ①②④⑤

28. What can we know from the text?

- A. Bazaar doesn't sell phones or computers.
B. Deeziner.com only sees things for children.
C. Bazaar.net got more reviews than deeziner.com

D. Things are cheaper at deeziner.com than bazaar.net.

Welcome to Tennis for Kids!

Here's some information to help your child get the most out of our tennis lessons. What does my child need to wear?

Your child can wear cool comfortable clothes and a comfortable pair of shoes. We also advise that your child wear a hat (their school hats are fine). What does my child need to bring?

Please make sure you get your child's tennis racket, lots of water(2 water bottles in summer) and some bananas. Do not let your child bring money, watches or toys that could be lost or broken!

Can friends or family stay and watch?

Yes, parents are welcome to watch. We do find it helps younger children if their parents walk them to the court for the first lesson. However, do not feel you have to stay. Keep in mind, lessons will start at 8:00 a.m. and finish at 10:30 a.m. and our teachers cannot be responsible(负责的) for children before lessons start or after lessons finish.

What if it rains?

We will move inside if we experience rain. The program will be changed a little. As soon as the rain clears, we will dry the courts and head back out!

What happens if my child is sick or can't take his or her lesson?

You can email info@tennisforkids.com.au or call us at 0408156668 to let us know your child will not be able to make it. However, we won't give the money back or give a make-up lesson.

www.tennisforkids.com.au PHONE: 0408156668

How much pocket money do you get from your parents each week? British researchers did a survey of 1,204 children between 8 and 15 years old. According to the reports, they are getting less and less pocket money.

In 2010	They found the average amount of pocket money for British kids was about 5.89 pounds (62 yuan) a week.
In 2009	It was 6.24 pounds (66 yuan).
In 2007	It was 6.58 pounds (69 yuan).
In 2003	Parents gave children an average of 5.79 pounds (61 yuan) a week.

However, children are not too worried about it, according to the survey. Almost half of them believe they get the right amount. Only 42 percent say they would like to have more pocket money. Most kids like to compare their pocket money with their friends. In the survey, 37 percent believe their friends get more money than they do.

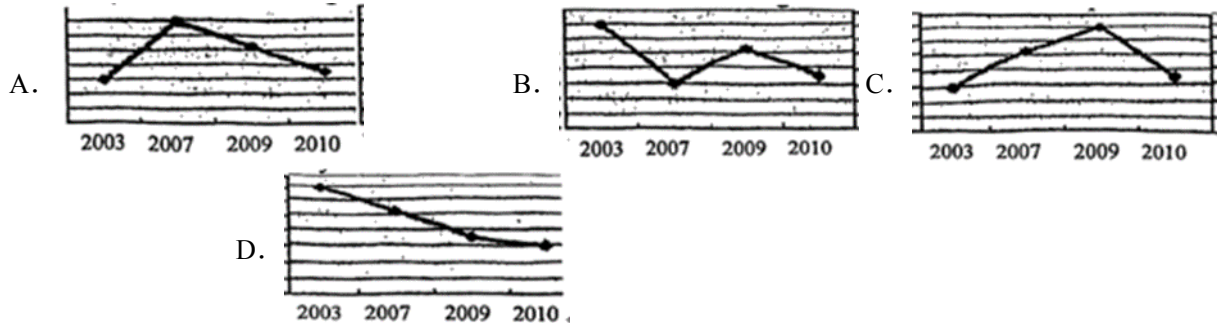

Although they are receiving less pocket money than before, most British kids still keep the good habit of saving, according to the survey.

1 0%	They save all their pocket money.
2 5%	They save at least half.
3 5%	They will save money to buy something they really want.

“It is good to develop the habit of saving at a young age,” said Flavia Palacios Uman, one of the researchers.

“You will benefit later in life because your savings will add up over time.”

39. Which diagram shows the changes of the children’s pocket money?

40. According to the survey, how many children can save all their pocket money?

- A. About 120. B. About 300. C. About 420. D. About 1204.

41. Where can you most probably find this passage?

- A. In a story book. B. In a textbook.
C. In a novel. D. In a magazine.

Tuesday, November 10

This is my fifth day in Kazo. How time flies! I’m happy I chose to volunteer (做志愿者) in Kazo. I know it won’t be easy to spend time here, but I think I’m going to learn a lot. Maybe I can make a difference!

Thursday, November 12

Many of my friends want to know what I do every day. When we arrived, we met the families that we would visit four days a week. In the mornings, I help the women do some cooking and cleaning. In the afternoons, each volunteer works on his or her special project (项目). In the evenings, all the volunteers play games with the children. We taught them to play backgammon—it’s the most popular game.

Wednesday, November 18

I started to teach the kids dancing. I teach them flamenco and many folk dances (民族舞). We are going to hold (举办) a dance competition. Sixty schools are going to join in. We practice every afternoon. The kids are very happy and so am I!

Thursday, December 10

Tomorrow is our last day in Kazo. I have wonderful memories (记忆) of my time here. I enjoyed getting to know the people and their way of life. I feel good about myself and what I’ve done here. By the way, we won first

B. To call on students to join the club.
C. To tell students the importance of learning.
D. To make plans for students' holiday.

When you're going to a new school or going to a party, how do you make friends? Here are some advice for you.

Listen and ask questions.

By being a good listener, you can let others know that you value (重视) what they say and who they are.

You can let others know you're paying attention by looking at their eyes from time to time while they're speaking, then asking a question or two about what they're saying.

Give praise.

If you notice something you like about someone, give a compliment. Sharing it with him or her is a great way to start a conversation.

When giving a compliment, be honest and true. Even if you compliment someone on something very small-like the color of the person's shoes, he or she will be very glad to hear it.

Keep yourself from the mobile phone.

Put away your phone and take a look around. Who seems funny or interesting? Which people in the room have you never talked to? Remember these people and spend a little time getting to know them face to face.

Join a club or team.

Having an interest in common with another person gives both of you something to talk about. You can join clubs, teams or other groups.

72. When you are listening to other people, you should _____.

- A. just listen to the things you like
- B. look at their eyes from time to time
- C. ask no questions
- D. know whether their ideas are valued

THE KIDSBRIDGE TOLERANCE MUSEUM

Volunteer Opportunity (机会) for College Students

VOLUNTEER ACTIVITIES

Our volunteer college students work with small groups of young people to guide them through activities and discussions. Students from different majors(专业) can learn a lot from our program, especially teacher major. Working with small groups is an excellent way to develop as a new teacher. Many of our visitors have Spanish as a first language, so bilingual(双语的) teachers are wanted.

TRAINING

No experience is necessary! Have fun working with the young. New volunteers receive training and work with experienced teachers.

TIME COMMITMENT

Field trips take place between 9:30 am and 1:30 pm during the week. Volunteers may work 9:30 am to 11:30 am or 12:15 pm to 1:30 pm, or 9:30 am to 1:30 pm if you like. Volunteers generally attend as often or as little as they prefer.

OTHER WAYS TO VOLUNTEER

Kidsbridge also provides opportunities for students with specific interests to do research and learn more. Internship (实习生) opportunities are available. Volunteering in the Museum also counts as Community Service hours.

College students' reflections after visiting the Kidsbridge

Tolerance Museum:

"It is an experience that can't be compared to other college classes. I've found that sharing time with the kids was not only beneficial to them but a huge benefit to me."

"Now I know why I want to be a teacher —these children need the best teachers. I learned that you never know what a student is going through, and you may not have the answers. However, if you are the person who that child looks to as different, as a safe place from all of the madness in their lives, then you have opened the door. You can make a world of difference.

Apps can help with our life. They make our lives easier and more fun. Let's see some great apps for holidays.

Soosee Do you have a food allergy (过敏) or are you on a special diet? The app Soosee could help scan the ingredient labels (成分表) of products and quickly tell you if it has any of the things you want to avoid. It's also called a "food scanner". Soosee works in nearly 20 languages. It can also translate information if you travel overseas or buy a product from another country.

Strava Strava is used by millions of people to record exercise activities. People mainly use it to record running or bike riding, but it can also record other activities too. If people go for jogging, they can see their running paces and the routes (路线) they take. Here is also an "activity feed" which you can check your friends' activities.

Headspace If you need someone or something for support, the app Headspace might help you deal with stress, sleep better and stay focused. It has four main sections. In the Meditation section, you can focus on different feelings or topics. In sleep, stories and exercises help you relax before bed. In Move, there are some workouts guided. Finally, Focus help you focus on the task by music.

1. How many apps are introduced in the passage?
A. Two. B. Three. C. Four. D. Five.
