第一题

Passage:

Once upon a time in a small village,there lived a young girl named Lily. Many people in the village thought that she was unlucky because her mother died when she was very young,and she had no brothers or sisters to support her. Despite these challenges,Lily was a very kind and adventurous girl.She often dreamed of traveling the world to learn about different cultures and find someone who could help her understand her mother's death.

One day,Lily decided to pack her few belongings and set off on her journey. She walked for many days until she reached a bustling city with tall buildings and friendly people.In the city,she met a wise old man who had heard of her story and offered to be her guide.Together,they visited various places,learned about different customs, and grew to love each other as mentor and student. One day, as they were walking along the river, Lily asked the old man, "Why did my mother die? Do you know anything about it?"

The old man replied thoughtfully, "Lily, your mother's death was not your fault. It was a mysterious illness that struck suddenly. However, I can tell you that it was because of the love between you and your mother. She felt that she was missing something important in her life and your birth was the missing piece. Her love for you was so strong that it caused her illness. Remember, your mother loved you unconditionally."

Lily was deeply moved by the old man's words. She realized that even though she couldn't change what had happened, she could cherish the memories and continue to live a happy and fulfilling life. They continued on their journey, filled with new hope and understanding.

Questions:

1、 What do the people in the village think of Lily?

· Answer: People in the village think that Lily is unlucky.

2、 Why did Lily decide to leave the village?

第二题

Reading Passage:

In recent years,there has been a significant increase in the number of students who choose to study abroad.Many of these students believe that studying overseas offers numerous benefits,such as gaining a global perspective, acquiring a higher-quality education,and improving their language skills. However,there are also some challenges,including the high costs,homesickness, and cultural shock.

One of the most common reasons why students choose to study abroad is the opportunity to experience a different culture.According to a survey conducted by the International Education Research Center,62%of the surveyed students agreed that cultural immersion is a major factor in their decision to study abroad.Furthermore,many students believe that studying in an English-speaking country can significantly improve their language proficiency.

Despite the advantages,studying abroad is not without its difficulties. For instance,financial costs are a major concern for many students and their families.One study found that the average cost of attending a university in a developed country is approximately$25,000 per year,including tuition,fees, and living expenses. Additionally, the initial period of cultural shock can be challenging, as students may find it difficult to adjust to a new way of life.

An important aspect of studying abroad is the opportunity for personal growth and independence. Many students report that living alone in a foreign country has helped them become more self-reliant and confident. This skill development is not only beneficial for their academic careers but also for their future employment opportunities.

Questions:

1、 Why do many students choose to study abroad?

A. To improve their language skills

B. To experience a different culture

C. To spend more time with their families

D. To avoid the high costs of education at home

2、 What percentage of surveyed students believe cultural immersion is a major factor in their decision to study abroad?

A. 40%

B. 50%

C. 62%

D. 75%

3、 According to the passage, what is one challenge of studying abroad?
