To: Peter

Subject: Welcome to Glasgow

Hi Peter. I'm really happy that you are coming to Glasgow next weekend. My friend Sam plays in a band and they will have a small concert on Friday evening. Would you like to go to the concert?

On Saturday afternoon, we can go around the city or go to see a football match. What would you like to do? Please tell me.

These days I am learning Chinese but I only have one 60-minute lesson every week. How do I learn Chinese? Can you help me?

Chris

To: Chris

Subject: Re: Welcome to Glasgow

Hi Chris. Thanks for your email. I can't wait to come and visit!

So, about Friday ... I'd love to see your friend's band! I'm thinking of starting my own band so I want to meet your friends and ask them about it.

On Saturday afternoon, I choose to travel around. I really don't like football.

I'm happy to hear that you are learning Chinese. I have a good friend named Sara. She teaches Chinese in Glasgow. I think she can help you.

Hi, there! Today we asked some students about their last weekend. Here are their answers.

It was my 15th birthday last Saturday. Some of my friends and Alan, my cousin came to celebrate it. Everyone brought me a gift. We had a party. We played games, sang songs and had a big birthday cake. It was really a wonderful day!

Roger

My class were on a school field trip last weekend. First, we went to the University of North Carolina to learn about the history of its basketball team. Many basketball stars were students there! Then we visited a museum. We learned about how the plane was invented and took many pictures there.
