Introduction

Background and Purpose

Globalization and International Trade

With the increasing globalization of the economy, international trade has become a critical aspect of business success. This background requires effective communication in the global business environment.

Purpose of Business English

The purpose of Business English is to facilitate communication between businesses from different countries, cultures, and languages. It ensures that information is accurately conveyed and understood to avoid misunderstandings and potential conflicts.

Definition and Function of Business English

Definition

Business English is a specialized form of English language used in the context of business communications. It involves vocabulary, grammar, and communication skills specific to the business world.

Functions

Business English serves multiple functions, including establishing professional relationships, negotiating contracts, discussing business operations, and resolving disputes. It is essential for effective communication within the international business community.

Overview of International Trade

- Importance of International Trade: International trade allows countries to exchange goods and services, which can lead to economic growth, increased employment opportunities, and a wide variety of products for consumers
- Types of International Trade: There are two main types of international trade: export trade, which involves selling goods and services to foreign countries, and import trade, which involves purchasing goods and services from foreign countries
- Barriers to International Trade: Barriers to international trade can include tariffs, quotas, subsidies, and non-tariff barriers such as regulatory differences and cultural differences. These barriers can limit the flow of goods and services between countries and impact the overall level of international trade.
