三、阅读理解请认真阅读下列短文，从短文后各题所给的A、B、C、D四个选项中。

1. (6分) Indian Heroes and Great Chieftains

The book mainly presents us with the American Indian leaders of the past. It includes many profiles and biographies such as Sitting Bull, Red Cloud , Little Crow and Lozen Quanah etc, written by author Charles Eastman , and I'm sure you will be interested in it.

Name: Sitting Bull

Birth : 1831

Death : 12-15-1890

He was a great hero and is respected by many American Indians. In a 1997 documentary— The Great Tribes , he was known as a holy man , a composer of songs and an artist. Under him, the Sioux and Cheyenne Nations unified. He was advised to go on a European tour in 1887, but he refused it to prevent these two nations from being separated again. He led his people during years of resistance (抵制) to United States government policies and was killed by Indian agency police on the Standing Rock Indian Reservation.

Name: Crazy Horse

Birth : 1842

Death:9-5-1877

Crazy Horse was a legendary fighter and a gentle leader as well as a brave man who stood for the highest ideal of the Sioux , celebrated for his battle skills as well as his efforts to preserve Native American traditions and way of life. Resisting efforts to force the Sioux on to reservations , he worked with Sitting Bull and others in the American- Indian Wars. Charles Eastman shaped him in his book Indian Heroes as "a man of deeds and not of words".

Name: Red Cloud

Birth : 1822

Death : 12-10-1909

He was against the movement of the white settlers into the Black Hills. In 1868 , he refused to sign a treaty (条约) , which stated that the Black Hills didn't belong to people. The treaty also stated that these areas couldn't be entered without the government's permission. According to Eastman's book Indian Heroes , he was said to force the government to give in and pull out of the area.

Name: Lozen Quanah

Birth : late 1840s

Death : 1890

Known as the youngest sister of Red Cloud , she devoted herself to the people. She was a heroine good at riding horses and using a bow and arrow to drive attackers away in Peter Aleshire's Warrior Woman. This skill was considered to be " one of the most honored skills among the Indians".

Beloved Fu Bao , the first giant panda born in South Korea , left South Korea for China on Wednesday. Thousands of panda lovers waited at Everland , the country's largest theme park in Yongin , to say goodbye to the country's top panda superstar. The panda fans kept silent when a specially- made vehicle carrying Fu Bao passed through the crowd in order to prevent her from being surprised by any noise.

Zookeepers held a farewell(告别) event for the fans inside the theme park. And the vehicle with a message of " It's a miracle(奇迹) to meet you. Thanks , Fu Bao" was unable to show the panda because she should spend a month in quarantine(隔离期) to prepare for her return to China.

Fu Bao has been loved by South Koreans for her lovely appearance and special attractiveness. Around 5.5 million people had visited the Panda World in the Yongin park since Fu Bao was made open to the public in January 2021. It is required that Fu Bao should return to China before reaching the age of four , according to some agreements. Kang Cheol- won , the zookeeper known as the " grandpa of Fu Bao" , went with the giant panda on her flight to China.

Fu Bao will be moved to the Shenshuping giant panda base in Wolong National Nature Reservein Sichuan for quarantine. The base is fully prepared to welcome Fu Bao and the base will decide when to make Fu Bao meet the public based on its adaptation(适应). Judging from past experiences , the adaptation period can last from one month to eight months , or even longer.

(1) Why couldn't people see Fu Bao during her farewell event? _____

- A. She had left for China.
- B. She was in a month- long quarantine.
- C. She needed a rest.
- D. She was not in the theme park.

(2) When should Fu Bao return to China according to some agreements? _____

- A. Before the farewell event.
- B. Before she turns 4 years old.
- C. After living in South Korea a for 5 years.
- D. After Kang Cheol- won arrived in China.

(3) What can we infer(推测) from the last paragraph? _____

- A. Fu Bao will live in the wild soon.
- B. Quarantine will last exactly one month.
- C. Public may not see Fu Bao at once.
- D. Fu Bao doesn't need adaptation.

(4) Which of the following is the main idea of the passage? _____

- A. Fu Bao's life in South Korea.
- B. Farewell for Fu Bao.
- C. Preparing for Fu Bao's arrival.
- D. Fu Bao's popularity and return to China.

3. (8分)

Every early morning in Southwest China's Chongqing , there is a common scene at the city's Subway Line 4:a group of farmers shouldering vegetables for sale are busy riding on the subway to the city center.

The second part of the subway line connects Shichuan town to the city center. It has provided local farmers near the town with a wider channel for selling their produce since its opening in 2022. The vegetables grown by the farmers , which used to be sold at low prices in the town , can now be sold at higher prices in the city.

Every morning around 6 o' clock , the entrance and exit of the Shichuan Town station of the line are crowded with special passengers. They carry baskets filled with fresh vegetables on their backs.

To make it easier for the farmers , the station which was supposed to open at 6:15 , now opens five minutes early every day. The workers at the station also help as much as possible: helping with the baskets , guiding them to enter the station quickly and orderly and so on.

There's an elderly couple in their 80s , who take the subway to sell vegetables. In Chongqing , people over the age of 65 can use the subway for free. The opening of this subway line not only saves money for the elderly but also time.

According to Feng, the husband of the elderly couple, it took him more than one hour to reach the city before as he had to take several buses. Now , by taking the subway , they can get there in less than 30 minutes without any hassle. And they can sell all their vegetables in less than three hours after arriving at the market.

(1) The writer starts the passage by

• _____ •

- A. showing some facts
- B. showing some numbers
- C. comparing differences
- D. describing a situation

(2) Why does the Shichuan Town station open five minutes early every day? _____

- A. To avoid rush hour crowds.
- B. To let more workers enter the station.
- C. To provide earlier service to elderly passengers.
- D. To make it easier for the farmers to use the subway.

(3) What are the two main advantages that the elderly couple enjoy from the subway line? _____

- A. Comfortable seats and free travel.
- B. Free rides and reduced travel time.
- C. Faster travel time and quicker entry.
- D. Lower vegetable prices and less crowding.

(4) What does the underlined expression "without any hassle" mean? _____

- A. without any difficulties.
- B. full of troubles.
- C. without any interest.
- D. full of energy.

4. (8分) Treasure Island isn't a true story, but the characters do seem to leap out of the pages alive armed to the teeth and ready to go treasure hunting. But you will find, as you read this book, that although pirates can be murderous and treacherous (奸诈的), they can also be cowardly, superstitious, and easily led. As it turns out, that is fortunate for Jim Hawkins.

It's a brilliant story. Billy Bones, a retired seaman, comes to live at the Admiral Benbow inn. Jim is just a boy, but he can see that Billy Bones is a nervous man, always on the look-out for strangers arriving at the inn. And well he might be nervous, because he carries with him in his battered old sea-chest a map drawn by Captain Flint himself giving the whereabouts of all Flint's buried treasure! Captain Flint!—the most feared pirate ever to travel the high seas.

Well, Flint is dead, but there are plenty of men who served with Captain Flint still alive who will feel they have a fair claim to the treasure. The map, though, ends up in the possession of Jim Hawkins—(it's a near thing, read the book to see how that happens) Jim tells the secret in the local doctor, who quickly joins forces to acquire a ship and crew to sail for Treasure Island.

There's a famous scene where Jim, hiding in the apple barrel on deck, discovers that mutiny(叛乱) is planned. It's a bad moment. The numbers suggest that the pirates are going to have it all their own way. There are nineteen mutineers and seven honest men, including Jim. And now, you will have to read the book for yourself. This is a fantastic tale of cheat , bravery and cowardice. I don't know how things would have turned out if it hadn't been for Jim Hawkins. For it is Jim who single- handedly steals the Hispanio la from under the very noses of the pirates and sails her round the island to a secret beaching place.

And do you know what happens to Long John Silver , the greatest double- crosser of them all? No? Well , don't expect me to tell you. Don't be nervous of reading a ' classi'. I know it was published a long time ago , but that doesn't mean it is difficult to read. There is one piece of advice I will give , though. I don't think this book is ever out of print--- there are hundreds of different copies around. If you can , choose a copy with large enough print to be able to read comfortably , and exciting illustrations. It makes all the difference.

Go ahead! Read the book. I think you' ll love it.

(1) The underlined sentence shows that _____.

- A. all the characters are true.
- B. the author describes some vivid characters in the book.
- C. all the characters jumps out of the page alive.
- D. all the characters have armed teeth and ready to go treasure hunting.

(2) According to this passage , which word can best describe Jim Hawkins? _____

- A. brave
- B. fearful
- C. artificial
- D. tricky

(3) How many characters are mentioned in this passage? _____.

- A. 3
- B. 4
- C. 2
- D. 5

(4) What's the purpose of this passage? _____

- A. to make a book review
- B. to recommend the book to the readers
- C. to sell the book
- D. to tell a story
