Dear Tom,

I'm very happy that you are interested in traditional Chinese stories. Well, let me tell you a famous one with the name "The Rabbit and the Tortoise".

Once upon a time, there was a rabbit. It liked running. One day, a tortoise decided to compete with the rabbit. All the animals went to watch the game. At first, the rabbit ran very fast and the tortoise walked very slowly. The rabbit thought it ran so fast that the tortoise wasn't able to catch up with it. So it fell asleep under a tree. However, the tortoise kept on walking without taking a break. Finally, the tortoise won the game and all the animals cheered for it.

【答案】 例文

Good morning! Today I'd like to share a story named The Shirt of a Happy Man with all of you.

A long time ago, the king who owned a rich and beautiful country was unhappy. He felt bad and didn't feel like eating. A doctor examined the king but he found nothing wrong with his body. The doctor said what the king needed was the shirt of a happy man to wear. Therefore, the prime minister, the king's banker and the palace singer were called to the palace. However, none of them was happy. The king's general was told to find a happy man in three days. Finally, the general found a poor man who was eating with his hands and singing happily to himself on the street. He was happy and his song came from the happiness from his heart. When the general asked him for a shirt, he said he didn't own any shirts.

In my opinion, happiness has nothing to do with power, wealth or fame. As long as we are satisfied with what we have and don't want what we can't have, we will be happy.

That's all! Thank you!

In the long history of China, there are many famous stories. One of my favorite traditional Chinese stories is “Yu Gong Moves the Mountains”. Once upon a time, there was an old man named Yu Gong. Near his home stood two mountains which made it difficult for him to go outside. Therefore, he led his children to move them away. When laughed at, he replied, “My children will go on forever, but the mountains will get no bigger.” Winter left and spring came. They kept on working. Finally, a god was moved by him and took the mountains away.
