Yours,

Jim

Dear Jim,

I know how you feel It's not easy being your age And it's not easy being a mother, either

It's common for kids to have trouble talking with parents, and talkative mothers are not new to teenagers But remember, she's nagging (唠叨) you because she just wants what's best for you Talking is her way to show love and care And she also wants to know more about you After a day's work, she's tired, too But she will never be tired of caring about you Kids should learn to understand and care about parents

In my opinion, it's helpful to share school life with her Then, you talk and she listens Doing some housework together with her is another good way for you two to know each other better And if possible, often tell her your feelings about the things around you Always keep in mind: be polite and patient
