No!

How do you feel after you argue with your parents?
Sad? Unhappy? Regretful?

Only mother's love is true love in the world. She gives everybody everything all her life. When you are still a tiny crying baby, mother takes good care of you as much as possible. When you are awake, she always holds you in her warm arms. When you can run through the field , she feels very worried about your safety and keep you away from danger . When you fall and hurt yourself, she will give you a hug and lift you up. When you rush to school without breakfast, she is always worried about you at home. She usually stands in the wind waiting for you until you come back from school.

Mother is always ready to give her children everything she has, never to receive anything. What true love it is in the world! So I will say to my mother, "Mum, I love you forever!"

Mom Knows Best

*When I was a tiny baby crying all night, my mom sang to me and stayed by my side.
When I was tired and hungry, she gave me food and warm arms to sleep in.
When I was two running through the field, she made sure I was safe and kept me from danger.
When I fell and hurt myself, she gave me a hug and lifted me up.*

*When I was seven coughing badly, she said no ice-cream for me.
But I talked back loudly, “I should be allowed to eat some! Give it to me now!”
When I was nine watching scary movies, she said it’d give me awful dreams.
But I shouted back angrily, “I should be allowed to watch it! I’m not a baby!”
When I was a teen going out with friends, she said, “Please be back by ten!”
But I talked back again — “I should not be told what to do! I’m seventeen now!”*

*Now I’m an adult, thinking back to those times.
I coughed for days after eating that ice-cream
And had scary dreams after watching that film.
I was late for school from staying out past ten.
I regret talking back, not listening to Mom.
Mom knows best, and for me she wanted only the best!*
