Description: In 2022, the revenue of the telecommunications industry in Argentina amounted to 939 billion Argentine pesos, up from 553 billion Argentine pesos the previous year. These fluctuating numbers can be explained by the country's high-inflation economy in recent years. In January 2023, the Argentinian Consumer Price Index (CPI) was 99 percent higher than the one registered the same month of the previous year. Read more
