教学反思	八、教学反思 Hey, everyone! As we wrap up this unit on "China attracts millions of tourists from all over the world," I'd like to take a moment to reflect on our teaching and learning experience. It's always valuable to look back and think about what went well, what could be improved, and how we can grow as educators. First off, I'm really pleased with how engaged the students were throughout the unit. We started with a warm-up activity where they shared their travel experiences, and it was great to see how excited they got when talking about their favorite places in China. It's clear that they have a strong connection to the material, which is a fantastic foundation for learning. One thing that worked particularly well was the use of multimedia in our lessons. I introduced new vocabulary and phrases by showing them beautiful pictures of Chinese landmarks and cities. The visual aids really helped to make the learning
